DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-16, drawn to an ischemic agent which contains basic fibroblast growth factor.

Group II, claim(s) 1-16, drawn to an ischemic agent which contains vascular endothelial growth factor.

Group III, claim(s) 1-16, drawn to an ischemic agent which contains hepatocyte growth factor.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the common special technical feature of a composition comprising a vascularization induction factor and a gelatin hydrogel is known in the art. According to PCT Rule 13.2, unity of invention exists only when the shared same or corresponding special technical feature defines a contribution over the prior art. Sakakibara et al. teach gelatin micro spheres containing basic fibroblast growth factor (see abstract).

37 CFR 1.475 does not provide for the inclusion of multiple inventions. If multiple products, processes of manufacture or uses are claimed, the first invention of the category first mentioned in the claims will be considered the main invention (see PCT Article 17(3)(a)). Accordingly, the inventions of Groups II and III do not have unity of invention with the composition of Group I.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
